In the last days of April 1953, discussions were underway between [redacted] Chemolimpex of Budapest, and the Soviet Oil Administration concerning the purchase of 15,000 tons of diesel oil. Director Szolos (fnu) of Chemolimpex, Budapest, had informed Dr. Josef Horvath of Messhart, Vienna, that the need for diesel oil in Budapest was urgent and had instructed Horvath to attempt to obtain 1,400 tons immediately from the SMV to be shipped at once as an advance on the 15,000 tons. Payment is to be handled by the Hungarian Legation.
